

Accreditation process

This document gives a simplified view of the stages of the accreditation procedure and gives an idea of the timeline from initial contact to accreditation.

It is important that this document be read in conjunction with the "Procedures for Accreditation of Chiropractic Programmes November 2023" where the process is presented in detail. Please see paragraph references for more information.

